Name Change For Timberline Wild Adventures

Dave and Christine Nelson of Timberline Wild Adventures TV show have changed their show name to GhostBlind's Timberline Wild Adventures effective immediately to reflect their new sponsor, GhostBlind. Ghostblind manufacturers a patent-pending adaptive camouflage blind system.

The Nelsons along with their son, Jordan, host and produce this family-oriented hunting show currently in its sixth year of production. The show will continue its philosophy of introducing kids to the outdoors and will feature GhostBlind's Extreme Kids segment hosted by Jordan.

GhostBlind's Timberline Wild Adventures mission is to present to adults and children of all ages an ethical hunting adventure program filled with fair-chase hunting excitement that is informative with a touch of humor.

GhostBlinds Timberline Wild Adventures will air on Sportsman Channel starting in July on Friday night at 10 pm, Saturday 7:30 am, and Wednesdays at 7:30 am, cst.
